

Collaborating Organization

We collaborate with world-class universities and research institutions that excel in halal management and human resource development—both essential for Muslim tourism.

IIUM: International Islamic University Malaysia

The International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) is a public comprehensive university established under the vision of creating a global Islamic educational institution, as initiated by Malaysia's fourth Prime Minister, Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad. It was founded through joint funding by the Government of Malaysia, several Islamic countries, and the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC).

INHART: International Institute for Halal Research & Training

INHART is a research and educational institution affiliated with IIUM, serving as a platform to support the Malaysian government's goal of positioning the country as an international halal hub. In addition to postgraduate halal studies programs, it offers a wide range of halal-related training programs for both businesses and the general public.

University of Indonesia

It is the oldest institution of higher education in Indonesia, originating from the Batavia Medical School established by the Dutch colonial government in 1851. It is a member of the ASEAN University Network and the Association of Pacific Rim Universities and has produced numerous prominent politicians and scholars.

Spatialworks Sdn Bhd

Spatialworks Sdn Bhd, headquartered in Putrajaya, Malaysia, provides GIS services and IT solutions. Since its foundation in 2000 by Mr. Mohamed Nazari Jaafar, it has served both public and private sector clients in areas such as environmental management, urban planning, and project strategy, and is also engaged in the wholesale of electronic components.

Global Muslim Tourism Association